

Indiana Educators of Color Network Conference

ISTA is hosting its second annual Indiana Educators of Color Network Conference for Black, Indigenous and people of color (BIPOC) members and allies. This year's theme is Powerful Voices. Powerful Change.

Attendees will experience:

- General and breakout sessions led by ISTA members and NEA leaders from diverse backgrounds.
- Engaging conference topics including: building a professional portfolio, developing strategies through the usage of hip-hop to benefit students, mind-body medicine and more.
- Dinner stations with food representing diverse cultures and fun activities.

Luis Ortega
Storytellers for Change

Sundjata Sekou
Third Grade Teacher

Date: June 6 - 7
Location: Intech | Indianapolis