

ISTA ReSupply

Experienced educators know building a well-equipped classroom takes years. To support new and early career educators, ISTA launched ReSupply, a program that collects and distributes new and gently used classroom supplies. ISTA is looking for your help to replenish materials. Donations from current educators with extra materials, retired educators and community members wishing to support those entering the profession are accepted.

DONATIONS NEEDED:

- Posters/poster board
- Glue/tape
- Notebook paper, notebooks & copy paper
- Books for classroom libraries
- Bulletin board items
- Baskets, bins & organizers
- Dry erase boards & markers
- Clipboards, notebooks & pencils/crayons/sharpies
- Art supplies
