January 11 at 7 p.m. ET

Distance Learning Protips

Join us as we explore our favorite PK-13 edtech tools while also considering what quality lesson design at a distance looks like. We'll share how we use guidelines like The Triple E Framework (Dr. Liz Kolb) to figure out how well our favorite tools are helping us engage our students and enhance and extend their learning goals.

Building Routines for Student Success in a Virtual Space

How can physical classroom routines (submitting work and getting help) be transformed for effective use in virtual spaces? This webinar will discuss how to teach students the necessary skills to confidently navigate virtual learning communities and also help students transition to virtual/remote learning that seems familiar to face-to-face instruction.
